

COMPANY PROFILE

ZERO3 is a full service award winning creative digital agency, with an innovative, bold and fresh approach to graphic design, from concept through to final application.

With offices in Amman, ZERO3 aims to become the leading creative digital agency in the Middle East.

ZERO3 can significantly enhance a company's brand value and communication impact. We take a pragmatic approach to our client's creative needs.

Through ZERO3's proven visual communications expertise, we are committed to providing the full range of print, web and multimedia solutions and setting new standards of design in the region.

With combined experience of more than 20 years in graphic design from branding to media art direction ZERO3 was established in 2008 by GAITH KAWAR and YAZAN KAWAR with the help of a trusted investor.

Gaith Kawar

Gaith's skills have been honed at Apple Inc, Cupertino, CA, as well as CMP, the largest business to business publishing house in the United States. With an additional 12 years in the Middle Eastern market, Gaith brings strategic thinking, and a refined, contemporary approach to your visual communication requirements.

Yazan Kawar

With in excess of 10 years of pioneering design work in his native Jordan, Yazan has created high impact designs for a range of large clients and publishing houses. With a particular expertise in high-end 2D and 3D special effects, Yazan brings advanced visual tools and functionality to branding and communication projects.

The ZERO3 team is specifically chosen to fit our growing needs, and every member is focused on providing a professional and high quality service to our clients.

What sets us apart?

The core of ZERO3 is a group of designers with a business sense.

We will make design work to achieve the business objectives through the use of usability standards and visual communications methods.
